Points for Prayer

We believe that the Scriptures call on churches as well as individual believers to pray fervently, reverently, humbly, sincerely, regularly and with faith (Luke 21:36 Watch therefore and pray always: James 5:16 The effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much).

Giving thanks to the Lord for:

Children Christmas outreach, on Friday we had 40 kids and 15 parents most of them were unchurched families, they all enjoyed carols singing, Christmas talk and food afterwards. Please pray that the Lord would speak to them and draw them to himself.

Outdoor carols singing, on Christmas day evening near the church in the outdoor and we sang carols. Nice to see few neighbours came out and joined us too.

Christmas leaflet distribution, this year we distributed 2000 leaflets and in response it was nice to see few parents who came to church. Please pray that it would be nice to see them again.

Missionary Interest

PLEASE PRAY FOR DAYLIGHT CHRISTIAN PRISON TRUST

We are grateful for ongoing opportunities to supply prisons with weekly written messages and other literature, and for continued positive responses to these. During December it was particularly encouraging to receive Christmas cards and letters from prisoners letting us know how much they have appreciated this support over the last year.

"A" is a prisoner who has used our letter writing ministry for a few years and spends much of his spare time studying the Bible. He sent a card thanking us for the regular written messages and other literature he has received, writing, "I would like to thank you so much for sending me the encouraging Scripture letters, they have been really interesting and have helped me on my journey of faith. It has been a blessing to have Daylight, and thank you, for sending me the study resources. Without you I would not have been able to study and to grow in my faith; thank you once again".

Another prisoner, "B", who began to write to one of our volunteers last spring writes, "Thank you for sending the teaching sheets, they have some good ways of looking at things and I benefit a lot from them, so thank you." He has many deep questions about spiritual things and is keen to learn more, asking for resources on particular topics and sharing what he is learning with others in the prison. As prisoners continue to receive written material this year, we pray that the Lord will use it to encourage those who are believers, and that others will be challenged to think about where they stand spiritually, being brought to see their own need of the Saviour.
