Teach those things which concern the Lord Jesus Christ Acts 28:31

June 2022

None of us is above falling

1 Samuel 15

Saul breaks the Law of the Lord then offers sacrifices to the Lord.

Saul's fall is fast and far. His spiritual leadership is destroyed before he really gets a good start. Such a profound disparity between how he starts and how he ends is difficult to explain.

It stands as a warning, however. None of us is above falling, no matter where we are in our spiritual walk.

Our regular prayers ought to include what Jesus teaches us to pray: "Do not lead us into temptation but deliver us from the evil one" (Matthew 6:13).

Again, Jesus says, "Watch and pray, lest you enter into temptation" (Matthew 26:41).

The price of our spiritual welfare is eternal vigilance.

Points for Prayer

We believe that the Scriptures call on churches as well as individual believers to pray fervently, reverently, humbly, sincerely, regularly and with faith (Luke 21:36 Watch therefore and pray always: James 5:16 The effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much).

Please pray for Queens Platinum Jubilee celebration on the near by Green. We hope to meet and distribute John gospel.

Please pray for Telugu Church Hounslow using our church for retreat and Pastor Robin will be taking one teaching session and Muno will be teaching children.

Please pray for Ency, Abraham and Elijah travelling to India for a family visit. Please pray for refreshing time and safe journey.

Please pray for four Muslim teenagers who recently attended Friday kids club, they remembered the story of PRODIGAL SON which they heard three years ago when they were in primary school. Pray that the Lord open their eyes.

Please pray for a Hindu priest who I was able to share gospel and may the Lord please to visit him.

Please pray for Toddler group gradually picking up and numbers are growing.

Missionary Interest

A hope and a future: Christian schools change lives for poor Christian families in Pakistan

Faizaan was thrown out of school when his parents could not pay the fees. Distressed and longing to study, “I prayed to God that He shows me the right direction and helps me out of it,” explains Faizaan. His prayers were answered when he heard about a Barnabas-funded Christian school where he could study almost free of charge. “Thank you, God, for your love,” says Faizaan as he finishes his testimony.

Faizaan is one of more than 11,000 poor Christian children attending Christian schools in Pakistan supported by Barnabas Aid. With Barnabas’ contribution to the running costs, the schools can charge minimal fees, affordable by their parents, who work in low-paid jobs such as labouring, domestic service, or brick kilns.

The free schools provided by the Pakistani government are usually very tough for Christian children, who feel hated, despised and discriminated against. Christian pupils are made to feel so inferior and the pressures are so great that some drop out of education altogether, unless their parents can afford private schools.

Please pray, support, and need more information go to the website of BARNABAS FUNDS.

Thank you for turning off cell phones during the worship service.
